

Do You Hear the Call... the Call of the WILD?

Test your Patrol's outdoor skills in the wilds of the Klondike Region (OhDaKoTa) this winter. Journey by sled to the far reaches of civilization as you travel between outposts and settlements to obtain supplies, seek medical aid, trade tales of valor, and compete with your fellow Scouts for glory and bragging rights!

$18 Scouts
$12 Adults

Will your Patrol find the elusive and mysterious Yeti before he finds YOU?!

HINT: Anything in the Scout Handbook pertaining to OUTDOOR WINTER FIRST AID is VALUABLE to know!

Heed the Howl!

Each Patrol will need a sled capable of carrying Klondike supplies AND at least one Scout.

Stay tuned for details on specific equipment/skills needed to survive and thrive during this event!

What: 2017 Gateway & Fox River District Klondike

When: January 21, 2017

Check-in 8am Events 9am-4pm

Supper & Awards 4:30-6pm

Where: Frozen Wilderness (OhDaKoTa)

Please Note: This is a 1-day event that includes BOTH lunch AND supper. Plan to stay for supper and the AWESOME awards ceremony fireside in the Dining Hall

CONTACTS:

Mike Mahan (T385): michael.a.mahan@att.net (224) 558-6801

Karen Young (T512): hkhickey@wi.rr.com (262) 748-7662